Dedication

*To William Joseph Corboy, S
J., Chairman of the Athletic Board, in appreciation of his sixteen years work in guiding
Creighton Athletics, this volume is dedicated.*

Rev. William Joseph Corboy, S. J., was born in Limerick, Ireland. Father Corboy received a M. A. Degree from St. Louis University and was also ordained at that institution. Father Corboy came to Creighton in 1914, and at the declaration of war he entered in the service of the U. S. Army and went overseas with the troops as Chaplain. Being discharged in 1919 he was again assigned to Creighton as Faculty Director of Athletics and Chairman of the Athletic Board.

Rev. William Joseph Grace, S. J.
President of the University

B. A. St. Louis University, 1900
M. A. St. Louis University 1908

Father Grace was born in St. Louis, Mo., February 23, 1882. He entered the Jesuit Order in St. Louis, coming to Creighton in July, 1920, as Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences and Professor of Education. In October of last year Father Grace was inaugurated President of Creighton University.

A decorative border with a repeating floral and vine pattern in a light green or gold color, framing the entire page content.

Our University

The University is closing the forty-eighth year of her existence. From infancy she has advanced to maturity, in a growth which has been steady and healthy. Today she finds herself rejoicing modestly in her strength, grateful for the blessings which have come to her through the years, quietly confident of the things that are ahead. With passing time her responsibilities have enlarged and her problems have become weightier. It is the price which she must expect to pay for greater opportunities. Her satisfaction is in the thought of service gladly rendered in the sight of effective work being done by those who have been in her halls and are now in the field of life's labor, in the firm conviction that those who constitute her student body of today are learning the lessons of truth, of knowledge, of loyalty and of helpfulness, which will bring them in turn well prepared to advance the ideals of their Country and Alma Mater.

Rev. William J. Grace, S. J.

"What greater or better gift can we offer the republic than to teach and instruct our youth."--Cicero.

"What doth it profit a man to gain the whole world and lose his own soul."

Where the mettle of men is tested

"The gladsome light of jurisprudence."—Sir Edward Coke

"O this learning what a thing it is!"—Shakespeare.

"For science is—like virtue, its own exceeding great reward."

"I love it, for what it makes me forget, and what it makes me remember."

"Life is but a stage where every man must play a part."—Shakespeare.

*Within the Portals of thy doors—
Ideals are formed and wills made strong.*

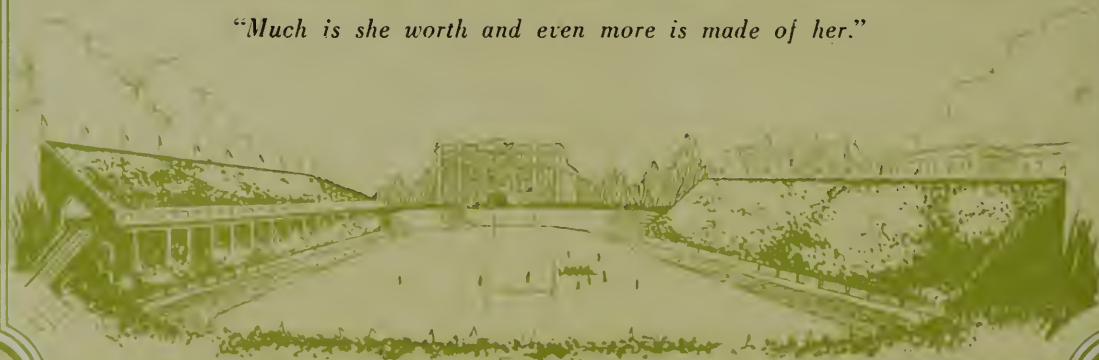

"Underneath their fine incisions—stirs the culprit—Life!"

"Much is she worth and even more is made of her."

"Despatch is the soul of business."—Chesterfield.

Here to record achievements.

Youths pass down this roadway, always gay.

Where the planets are brought to the portals of inquiring minds.

As I turn these leaves of fancy, here I stop to greet friends that I've known.

ARTS AND SCIENCES

ARTS AND SCIENCES

The Arts College was established in 1876 through a bequest made by Mrs. Mary Lucretia Creighton who died January 23, 1876. The site was purchased and a building erected thereon. This was the first unit of the Creighton University, the old Arts college. The Creighton College was incorporated under the name of the Creighton University and the Right Reverend James O'Connor, D. D., First Bishop of Omaha, and trustee named by Mrs. Creighton, called in the Jesuits to Creighton College. The subsequent growth of the Creighton University and enlargement of its endowment are due mainly to the benefactions of Count John A. Creighton and his wife, Sarah Emily Creighton.

REV. ALFRED J. KAUFFMAN, S. J.
Professor of History

ARTS AND SCIENCES

The Auditorium is the second in importance as a center of student activities. In here are held the student dramatic offerings, debates, oratorical and elocution contests. Of these perhaps the Dramatic Club activities, under the direction of Charles Costello draw the largest attendance. Professor Edwin Puls is also to be congratulated for his very successful debating teams.

CHARLES S. COSTELLO. PH. B.
Public Speaking and Dramatics.

ARTS AND SCIENCES

St. John's Hall is the home of the Arts students. Inside these friendly walls and under the supervision of Father Robert Tallmadge the boys get the real impression of college life. All out-of-town students of the Arts College reside here. Besides providing board and lodging for the students, the proximity of the Hall to the Campus and the close associations among the seventy residents, engenders a Creighton spirit which never wanes throughout the year.

REV. ROBERT F. TALLMADGE, S. J.
Director of St. John's Hall.

ARTS AND SCIENCES

The Library, located in the south wing extension, contains over 31,000 volumes, besides Federal and State publications. It is also open as a study and reference room for the students of the entire University. Besides this University Library, the several Professional schools have their own library devoted to that specific vocation.

FRANCIS E. FITZGERALD, A. B.
University Librarian.

ARTS AND SCIENCES

The Astronomical Observatory is located on the north side of the campus and is fully equipped. It is truly the eye by which man may look into the secrets and the beauties of the heavens.

Member of University Faculty since 1875.

COMMERCE AND FINANCE

The College of Commerce and Finance was instituted in the fall of 1924 in the present building on Twenty-fifth and Cass streets. It fills a much needed demand for a school of business with the thoroughness of a professional school. Although the commerce is the youngest of the Creighton group, it is rapidly becoming one of the most active.

DENTISTRY

The Creighton Dental school is rated as the best in the west. It has enjoyed a Class "A" rating for many years. The students are so instructed that they may on leaving college, start the actual practice as Doctors of Dental Surgery. The Staff and the equipment are the best obtainable, and perfection is the watchword.

DENTISTRY

The Dental Clinic is where the future dentists receive the actual practice in manipulation and craftsmanship. Patients are treated here free of charge. While the work is not charged for it is the best obtainable and is under the personal supervision of an excellent staff.

SCHOOL OF LAW

The College of Law was opened in 1904 in temporary quarters provided by the College of Medicine. In 1921, the newly constructed building on the University Campus was opened. The College of Law is a member of the American Bar Association, and has received a class "A" rating. The course is so prepared and offered so as to give the students a so-called Legal Mind and to prepare them so that they may on graduating, engage successfully in the practice of their profession.

HUGH F. GILLESPIE, A. M., LL. M.
Professor of Law.

The Law Library contains 26,000 volumes, comprising most of the American, English and Canadian Reports, session laws and statutes of the various states and English and Canadian statutes. There is also an extensive collection of American and English Legal Periodicals. There are several thousand of the standard texts.

L A W

The Moot Courts give the students a practical education in the trial of a law suit. All forms are pleaded by the students, with the seniors as attorneys, juniors as witnesses, and freshmen as jurors.

In this room the sessions of Model House are also held. These are to give the students experience in the procedure of the House of Representatives.

MEDICINE

The Creighton Medical College is located at Fourteenth and Davenport streets. The location is particularly adapted to clinical work. Over 25,000 patients receive free treatment annually. The Medical College is a member of the American Medical association and is recognized as one of the few Class "A" colleges of that association. The entrance and scholastic requirements are the strictest of the entire University.

MEDICINE

St. Joseph's Hospital was the first home of the Medical College. The institution, under the direction of the Sisters of Mercy, was opened to patients in September, 1870. Two years later, the capacity of the building was increased with an extra expenditure of $14,000. In April, 1880, the management passed to the Sisters of St. Francis.

The Creighton Memorial Hospital was founded in 1888, by Mrs. Sarah Emily Creighton, and her husband continued the work after her death. Since the occupation of the building in 1892, new additions have been made which makes St. Joseph's Hospital the best in the west.

CREIGHTON TRAINING SCHOOL

The Training School for Nurses is a valuable asset, not only to the community, but to the state as well, because it's graduates, skilled in nursing, support themselves by helping others. There are close to 100 in training and approximately the same number of graduates.

CREIGHTON TRAINING SCHOOL

The Chapel is Romanesque in style. It has three magnificent Carrara marble altars, which were designed and constructed in Italy. A soft light stealing in through the artistically stained glass windows, a Munich importation, gives an atmosphere of prayerful solitude to the place. A large pipe organ completes the equipment of the chapel, which has a seating capacity of 300.

PHARMACY

College of Pharmacy

The Creighton College of Pharmacy, formerly the Omaha College of Pharmacy, became a part of The Creighton University, September 1, 1905. Since that time it has been housed in its own building and is provided with every facility for carrying on its work.

This College of Pharmacy is a member of the American Association of Colleges of Pharmacy, an organization whose membership is limited to the best colleges of pharmacy as determined by their requirements for entrance and graduation.

Pharmacognosy and Biology

PHARMACY

The College of Pharmacy is located at Fourteenth and Davenport streets immediately adjoining the Creighton School of Medicine, and its close association with the medical school, permits the students the greatest amount of practical work in connection with the free clinics maintained there.

Duchesne College is the newest addition to the University. By agreement entered into in July, 1925, between The Creighton University and Duchesne College, a union of the two institutions has been effected by which Duchesne College has become the College for Women of The Creighton University.

It is now possible for women to obtain full time residential work in Arts and Science at The Creighton University by matriculating at Duchesne College.

Mathew May is a senior Dent, the Treasurer of Psi Omega. He has given an example of the spirit that should be in every Creighton man. Despite serious handicaps he turned out for every practice and every football game for four years, although he has never won a letter in that sport. Surely this is an example of true loyalty to his College.

ACTIVITIES

The Students' Union

In the spring of 1925, the Union Board of Governors, taking into consideration the small quarters used as club rooms, began to consider the possibilities for enlarging their Union home to keep up with the ever increasing scope of activities of the Union.

Father Corboy, Regent of Athletics, was approached and after long consideration an agreement was reached whereby the Creighton Students' Union leased and took active control of the entire north half of the first floor of the Gymnasium; remodeling it to make suitable quarters for their various activities.

The new quarters include a Union office, club room, pool and bowling room, a candy store and lunch counter; still maintaining their private ball room on the second floor and the use of the main floor for the regular calendar of Union dances.

ACTIVITIES

A. J. MORRISSEY

E. C. GRANT

For two years Albert J. Morrissey has very credibly filled the position of Business Manager of the Students' Union, and has directly caused the rapid strides of progress the organization made in that time.

Coming into office with a two thousand dollar deficit facing him, Morrissey has placed the Students' Union on a sound financial basis with a few thousand dollars in assets. In order to accomplish this end he inaugurated the new system of Union dances, and enforced a rigid system of economy.

This year Morrissey instituted Articles of Incorporation for the Students' Union, and now the body is recognized under the Statute Law of the State of Nebraska. He was largely instrumental in the expansion of the Union to its new quarters which now furnish additional means of recreation to the students. With the moving into new quarters Morrissey caused the Union rooms to be open morning, afternoon and evening, formerly open only on afternoons.

Morrissey has also served as Business Manager of the Creightonian, the Students' Union paper, for two years.

To "General" Grant, Assistant Manager of the Union, has been left the task of putting the candy store and lunch counter on a paying basis. The results he has accomplished the past two years show a remarkable success. Grant hails from the Law School and has had several years' experience in the business world.

CALENDAR OF UNION DANCES

Freshman Dance—October 23, 1925. Confetti Carnival—February 12th, 1926.

Football Prom.—November 26th, 1925. Junior-Senior Prom.—April 9, 1926.

Inaugural Ball—May 14, 1926.

About 25 class, club and Fraternity dances were held in the private Union ball room.

ACTIVITIES

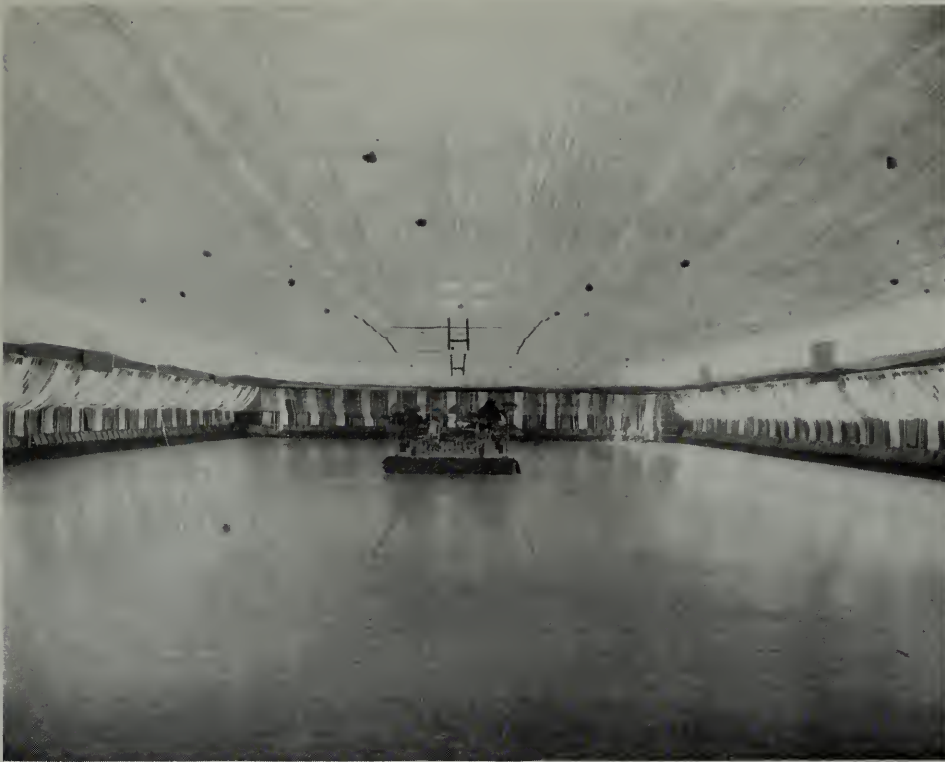

Pool and Bowling Alleys.

The Union has three Brunswick bowling alleys. These alleys are kept in first class condition at all times. The extent to which they are used by the students can be seen by the fact that a tournament was run off this year in which over 200 games were played. A silver loving cup and eight gold medals were presented to the winners. One billiard and five pool tables are maintained for the use of the members and these are in constant use afternoons and evenings.

The Candy Cage.

ACTIVITIES

Union Dances

With the new plan for Union dances inaugurated last year, a calendar of six dances was scheduled. This year five were held and each dance proved a big success. The junior-senior prom while under the control of the Union, is supposed to be handled strictly by a committee of class presidents of the junior and senior classes. The rest of the dances are handled strictly from the union office. One dance the big floor is transformed into a sea of red and green with a ceiling of white through which clusters of colored lights radiate their presence; the next it is a huge oval of blue and white or possibly red and white with the countless streamers flying defiantly overhead under the protection of the light saturated ceiling, and calling merrily to the confetti throwing crowd.

The Union Office.

The Union office is in the front club room and serves as an office for the regular transaction of union business, an employment office and an information bureau. It is here part time jobs are listed for students, of which several hundred are handled each year. It is here the new student makes inquiry as to the location of a previous student, or the best shows to take in, or where to save money on his haberdashery.

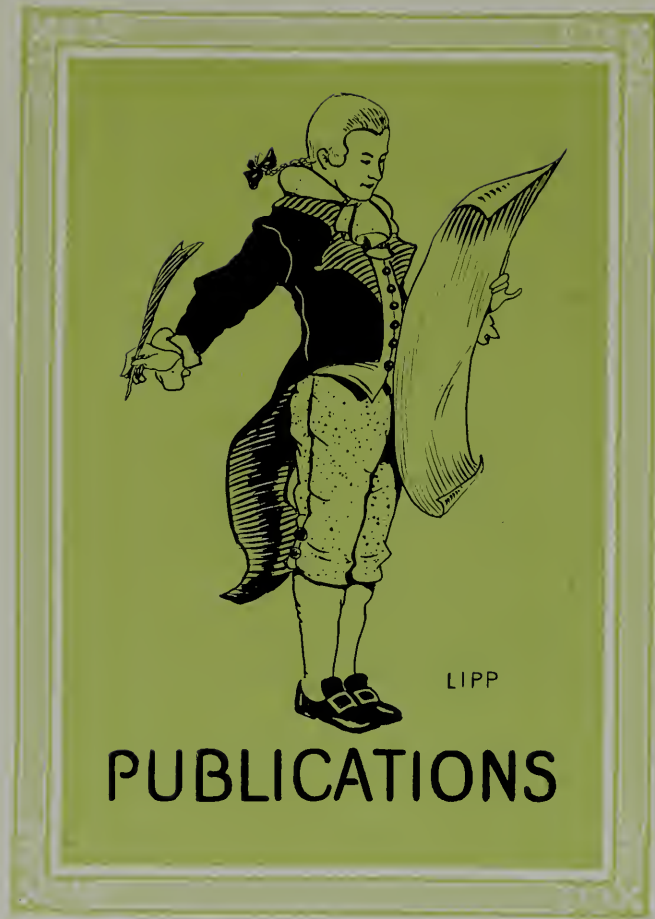

MCGINNIS

SCHULER

McGinnis was a campus find stolen from the Dramatic Club, where he was in his second year as stage manager. He is in charge of the pool and bowling alleys, and through his efficient work the union realizes good returns from these recreations.

Donaldson, a freshman, handles McGinnis's work in his absence; and Schuler, a senior, looks after the club-room.

ACTIVITIES

J. L. BEAN

H. E. DORWART

In the spring of 1925 the Union Board appointed Harry E. Dorwart and James Bean as Business Manager and Editor, respectively, of the Bluejay for 1926.

Harry Dorwart is a member of the Junior class in Medicine, and of the Phi Chi fraternity. James Bean is a Junior Law and a member of the Gamma Eta Gamma.

Thomas O'Brien is the staff advisor appointed by the Union board. Dave Cavanaugh acted in the position of assistant manager. Edwin Powderly served as managing editor.

ACTIVITIES

The Bluejay Office.

The Bluejay office is in the Commerce building facing on Twenty-fifth street. The staff has tried to produce the best volume possible. We hope that it will be satisfactory to all the students. We wish to thank the students of the University for their splendid co-operation in assisting us in every way that we desired.

HUGH FOGARTY

AL MORRISSEY

The Creightonian is the official newspaper of the University. It is made up and edited by students. The success of the publication is evidenced by the fact that it took first prize in the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondaries.

Its merits were in a large measure due to the efforts of Paul Cash, editor-in-chief, Hugh Fogarty, managing editor, and Al Morrissey, business manager. They and the staff are to be commended upon the success of the Creightonian.

Creightonian office is located in the Commerce School.

ACTIVITIES

The Creightonian Office

The Creightonian office is located in the south wing of the Commerce Building. Here Cash and Fogarty and their staff labored to edit their prize-winning paper. Through their efforts the paper has reached a high degree of perfection, and well represents the needs of the student body. A well organized system of news has been worked out and the paper can be truly said to be "Devoted to the Interests of the Students of the University."

"Shadows" is the name of the University magazine published by the students of the entire University. It is a well written and novel book. There are four issues each year. The Shadows was under the management of Martin McCarthy and assisted by Leo Fitzwilliams and Frank Ferlic. McCarthy resigned at the end of the first term and was replaced by John Daugherty, who edited the last two issues in a very capable manner.

Debate Squad

Frank P. Fogarty, Thomas Russell, Stuart Neary, Gordon Richmond, Leo McCabe, Milton Abrahams, Benjamin Kazlovsky, Martin McCarthy, Gerald M. Vasak, Lester Palmer, Bennie Morgan and John Flanagan.

Another successful debate season can be written down in the annals of Creighton. The success of this season being due to Mr. Edwin Puls, the debate coach. Through his efforts Creighton University has been able to maintain its standard of debating.

ACTIVITIES

FOGARTY. Captain; NEARY. RUSSELL

The above team composed of Thomas Russell, Frank Fogarty, and Stuart Neary, met some of the strongest debate teams in the middle west. They defeated Marquette University and Detroit University at Milwaukee and Detroit respectively. Their sole defeat being at the hands of Notre Dame University at Notre Dame, Indiana. The question debated on this trip was: Resolved, that Congress be given the power to regulate Child Labor. Creighton upheld the affirmative side of the question.

ACTIVITIES

The careful managership of schedule making and publicity is due to Theodore Bluechel, debate manager. A very successful year has passed and one of the best schedules yet made was by Bluechel.

Among the best work done by the Debate Teams this year were the debates with Marquette and Wisconsin. The latter team was debated on the prohibition problem that is attracting so much attention in political and social circles. Creighton debated on the negative side of the question and against the Prohibition Amendment. Although they lost on technical points they won a popular decision from the crowd that jammed the Auditorium to hear the arguments.

The debaters have enjoyed a successful year and deserve credit for their splendid showing. Flannigan and Russell have done their last debating for Creighton and both will be graduated with honors from the Law College in June.

ACTIVITIES

W. TRAYNOR

M. ABRAHAMS

The Intermural debate is held under the auspices of the Oratorical Society, and is open to the entire University. Every class and many organizations are represented by teams. The Debate League of 1925 was won by the Junior Law team composed of Walter Traynor and Milton Abrahams by virtue of defeating the Freshman Arts team in the finals.

The President Cup, offered by the President of the University, passes each year to the winning class. The class winning the cup three times will become the permanent possessor.

THE ORATORICAL SOCIETY.

OFFICERS

H. A. Dryselius, President

J. O'Brien, Vice-President

F. Ferlic, Treasurer and Secretary

In the fall of 1925 Theo. Bluechel was elected to the office of President, but owing to the demands of his numerous activities he was forced to resign from this office. In his place the Society unanimously elected Harold Dryselius who for the last semester capably held this position.

GORDON RICHMOND

The Creighton university Oratorical contest was won this year by Gordon X. Richmond, Law freshman, who spoke on the subject of "North American Imperialism." The Omaha chapter of the Ancient Order of Hibernians awards a gold medal to the winner of this contest every year. Over forty speakers competed in the preliminary tryouts for the six final positions. Other speakers in the finals were Joseph E. Green, Arts sophomore, who was awarded second place after discussing "Books or Activities"; Frank P. Fogarty, Law freshman, who was given third place, speaking on the subject of "One Hundred Years of Democracy"; Raymond J. Gibbons, "Child Labor and the Nation"; Lorenz A. Pettinger, "Enforce the Law"; Francis L. Heaton, "The Need of Leadership."

Judges of the contest were Mr. Herbert Bluechel, Mr. William T. Diesing and Dr. Michael J. Healey.

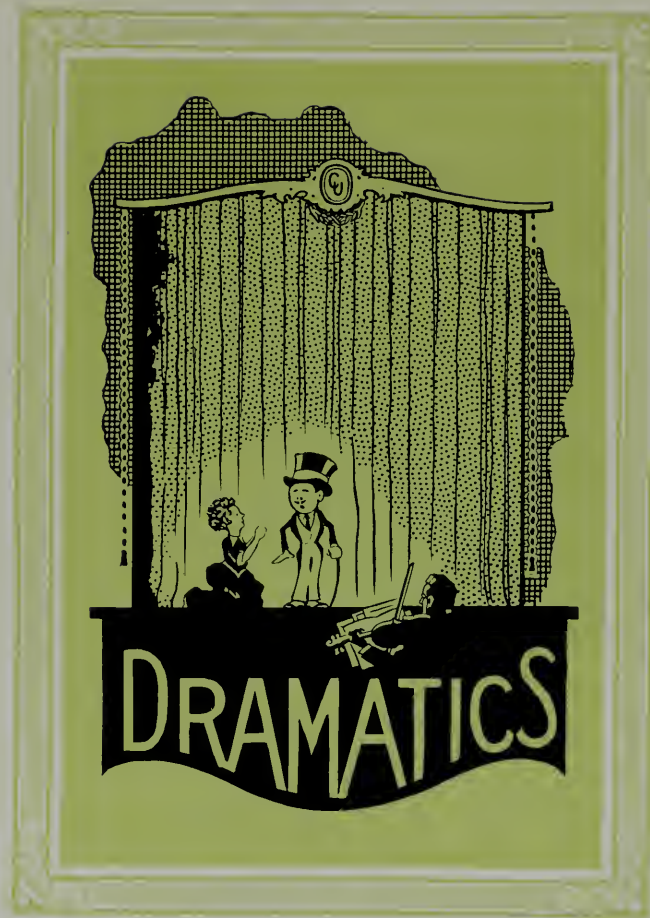

ACTIVITIES

Second Row—Duhigg, Arthaud, Byington, Vassek, Keegan, Havel, Phipps, Feldman.

ORATORICAL SOCIETY

The Oratorical Society is the largest organization on the Hill and is composed of over ninety students. The purpose of the society is the development of forensic ability and to develop latent talent for the debate teams. At each meeting a debate is held and a ten minute speech is held by the students. The meetings are attended by members only. At the first of the year the chief activities of the club are in the Intramural debates and the preliminaries for the Oratorical contest.

ACTIVITIES

PROF. CHARLES COSTELLO
Director of Dramatics

The Dramatic Club is under the direction of Charles Costello, who has held this office for the last three years. The progress in these lines has been remarkable and when we consider the handicaps under which the club labored, Mr. Costello is to be doubly honored. The club has advanced to where it is a feature of the University life, and from a poorly organized society to an efficient working machine.

Albert Morrissey is the president of the Dramatic Club. He has been a member of the organization since he first took up work at Creighton. Al has been manager of the club and served in that capacity last year. Al is also one of the leading stars in all of the dramatic productions that have been produced.

ALBERT J. MORRISSEY, President

The Dramatic Club

The Dramatic Club, a student organization composed of Creighton Students for the promotion of the Dramatic Arts. The purpose of the club is to present plays of a suitable character and to give the embryo dramatists the real experience in stage arts. All types of plays are produced and it is safe to state that every production of the Dramatic Club has been a success.

ACTIVITIES

The Cast of "Charley's Aunt"

On Friday evening, November 20, the Creighton Dramatic Club presented its initial appearance for the year, "Charley's Aunt." The leading role was played by Thos. J. Russell, Senior Law student. The Auditorium was completely redecorated and made a delightful background for the play. The play was presented as part of the Inaugural ceremonies and was witnessed by many "old grads" who were astounded at the great improvement in dramatics at Creighton in the last few years. In choosing "Charley's Aunt," a celebrated comedy, Prof. Costello and President Al Morrissey decided that the "grads" would prefer something in keeping with the home coming celebration.

Charley's Aunt

The play, "Charley's Aunt," was probably one of the cleverest that has ever been produced at Creighton. The artists chosen by Prof. Costello to entertain the crowd were all veteran men whose stage experience has extended over a number of years at Creighton and elsewhere.

The leading masculine role, or perhaps we should say feminine, was ably taken by Thomas Russell. As the old maiden aunt of a college student, he was a scream from start to finish. It was the cleverest bit of character acting that has been on the Creighton stage for many years.

Tom Russell as "Charley's Aunt."

The Cast of the "Copperhead."

The Copperhead

The "Copperhead" was presented Wednesday, April 7, before a well filled house. It was presented in a most remarkable manner that showed to the patrons of Creighton University plays that the Dramatic Club, under the direction of Prof. Costello, are capable of uproarious comedy and the heviest of tragedy. Clifford Ryberg, in his portrayal of the long-suffering "Copperhead" gave as beautiful a piece of acting as has ever been seen on the Creighton Stage.

SOCIAL

The Junior-Senior Prom.

DAVE CAVANAUGH, Prom Manager

The vacant and unfinished walls of the gymnasium were transformed into an Arabian palace in which the Queen and King of the annual Junior-Senior Prom were crowned. A picturesque Arabian palace formed the background in which three hundred subjects made merry to the strains of syncopated music until the wee hours of the morning.

For the first time in the annals of Creighton University's social circle, the Prom was declared formal, despite the dissensions among upper-classmen earlier in the year.

The favors which proved to be the most distinctive ever presented at Creighton, consisted of an Arabian cutlass made of oxydized bronze which was given to the gentlemen; and another of stair-blade, made of oxydized silver with a Grecial figure on the handle, was presented to the ladies. The favor and programs harmonized with decorations. There appearing on each individual favor an Egyptian scene of pyramids and palms embossed on a seal 1926."

Shortly before nine o'clock a long line of guests commenced to assemble in the down-stair department of the gym, later moving up to the Palace room proper, where the coronation services were scheduled to be held. Two military dressed trumpeters, arrayed with brilliant trumpets, sounded the key-note of the coronation services.

Descending down the long stair case, to music specially provided by Gordon Hettimark's Midnight Serenaders, Gordon Richmond, acting as High Chancellor of King Creighton, entered and went directly to the dias where he read the coronation proclamation. Silence reigned during the entire procession. The Court and their ladies were next to descend.

A hushed audience watched with eager eyes the approach of King Creighton the Fourth, in the person of Thomas O'Brien, senior medical student. As the crown was placed upon his head, the High Chancellor, in behalf of his subjects, introduced the King.

Anna Jane Beaton, newly chosen queen of King Creighton the Fourth, proceeded by a line of princesses, marched to the dias to receive the royal crown from her King.

The coronation services were perfect. The trumpeters announcing every move of the coronation procession, while a group of three hundred dancers watched on silently. Immediately following the coronation services, a grand promenade headed by the princesses and the royal powers that be, circled the gymnasium once, and then, the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

The committee of which David Cavanaugh was chairman had special decorations in the various parts of the gymnasium to remove the rustic color of barren walls. The decorations, coupled with the music and entire procession was declared by the attendance to be the first real formal and up-to-date Prom to be held at Creighton.

THOMAS J. O'BRIEN. Prom. King
ANNA JANE BEATON. Prom. Queen

Thomas J. O'Brien is a Senior Medic and was chosen by the Prom Committee as King Creighton the Fourth. O'Brien is one of the best known students on the University campus and is a member of the Union Board from the Medical school.

Anna Jane Beaton, is a Senior at Duchesne College. Miss Beaton is the leader of her class in activities and is a very popular and charming young lady.

The Glee Club, under the direction of Henry Cox, enjoyed its usual successful season. Their first appearances were at the Inaugural of President Father Grace, and at the University Night program, both being very well received. During the season several concerts were given at various functions and one broadcasted over WOAW, the Woodmen of the World Station. As a final concert, the Glee Club appeared in joint recital with Miss Margery Maxwell of the Chicago Grand Opera Company at the Omaha City Auditorium.

The Bluejay Quartet appeared at all important University functions, and gave several concerts before the Kiwanis and Rotary clubs of Omaha. The quartet became very well known and is now regarded as one of the best in this section of the country.

PROF. HENRY G. COX
Director of Music

Professor Henry G. Cox is Director of all musical organizations of the University. Professor Cox is very well known in musical circles and directs music in all Omaha high schools and clubs. To him is due the great success of the Glee Club and the quartet.

The Creighton Orchestra

The Creighton Orchestra as organized last September, was composed of twenty members, and under the able direction of Mr. Henry G. Cox.

The purpose of the orchestra is to create a greater music interest in the school, to offer an opportunity for those who wish to take advantage of it, and to provide music for all activities of the University.

The orchestra made its first appearance at the Inaugural banquet at the Hotel Fontenelle November 20, 1925. Since that time the orchestra has played for many events sponsored by the University, such as all presentations by the Dramatic club, debates, oratorical contests and assemblies. Two concerts were given at St. Joseph's Hospital for the nurses and Sisters.

A program is planned for the radio audience next month, and with the playing at the commencement exercises in June, the University Orchestra will close the season.

ACTIVITIES

The University Band

The dedication of the new stadium at Creighton this fall marked the initial appearance of the University Band in new uniforms consisting of dark blue trousers, white sweaters, and blue overseas caps. The new uniforms added considerable color to the student section of the stadium and gave the band a peppy appearance. The band made its first public appearance at the game between Creighton and Midland at Fremont, and helped the team get a good start on the season's schedule. The Blue-jay music-makers played at all subsequent football games and also keep the rooters pepped up at a majority of the basketball games. With the recent purchase of the University of a thousand dollars worth of new instruments, the outlook for a snappy-appearing band next fall is very good, and if all the musicians of the school turn out, Creighton will have a real musical organization on the campus next fall.

First Row—Lilly, May, Slattery, Madden, Raney, Niemeyer, McAloon, Ardell, Kelly, Beha, Ryan, L. Kean, Sullivan, McDermitt, Dendinger, Butterfield, Walsh.

Second Row—Diesing, O'Connor, Mork, Servoss, Herbert, Prenevost, Schuler, Hays, Houser, Powers, Lacey, Thomey, Sullivan, O'Brien, Luepke.

Third Row—S. Kean, Miscowitz, G. O'Connor, Tracey, Fitzgibbon, Captain Bertoglio, Coach Wynne, Hickey, Pratt, Dorwart, McDonald, Morley, Lang, McKenna, Krasne.

Possessed with unbounded energy and determination, Captain Bertoglio, playing his last year of football for Creighton, covered himself with glory, not only as a leader, but as a superior ball carrier. His reputation, built by three successful years of service under the blue and white colors, will be long remembered. He received honorable mention on Camp's All-American and fullback on the All-Conference. Captain Bertoglio will be graduated in June, and everybody joins in wishing him as much success in his professional career as his football career has proven to be.

ATHLETICS

Freshman Football

Left to right—Third Row—Conway, Sweeney, Flynn, J. Sullivan, F. Sullivan, Johnson, Hinchey, Connelly, O'Connor, Erickson, Maillard.

Second Row—Swertley, Iding, Walsh, Murphy, Buckman, O'Brien, McDonald, Donaldson, Sommers, Caniglia, Wynne, Rafferty, Russell, Reidner, Snell.

First Row—Howie, Bolton, Kamp, Lynch, O. Leary, Masica, Bertoglio, Coach Neary.

The Freshman squad of 1925 was undoubtedly the most promising squad seen on the hill in several years. Under the tutelage of Coach Neary, many outstanding stars were uncovered among the yearlings which make the prospects for a strong varsity seem above par. Much credit is due Coach Neary in bringing out the latent abilities of the first year men, and especially for his splendid inculcation of the Chet Wynne system of football.

LANG, ELMER.

The team was not long in selecting a worthy successor for Captain Bertoglio. Lang, who has played two brilliant years of varsity football, was the popular selection of the team. Under his leadership Creighton should continue to build up her football superiority in the Missouri Valley. Lang plays right end and has been a barrier to many opponents' well executed offense. He was all-conference captain this year.

FITZGIBBON, PAUL.

By popular vote and almost unanimous, Fitz carries off the honors of this football season. A foreign sport writer described this blonde and we find no more forceful words than these: "The fastest, smartest, and cleverest back we have seen on this gridiron" Fitz will be remembered for his clever open field running that so frequently reversed the score and allowed the spectator to sit at ease. In addition to being selected on the all-conference eleven, he was placed on Rockne's all-American. Fitz has played his last game for Creighton. Goodbye, Fitz, and good luck!

POWERS, DAN.

Dan held down a guard position and did it in admirable shape. He was injured during the first part of the season but returned to the game in time to lend valuable assistance to the line. Dan was a scrappy guard and could be depended on in any line play. Dan assisted Coach Wynne in spring practise. He will be graduated in June.

ALLEN, EDDIE.

Eddie played opposite Captain-elect Lang and was one of the best ends seen at Creighton for some time. His ability to get down under punts made him valuable, but his excellent work on off-tackle plays was more outstanding. Eddie does not graduate this year but he has finished his football career "on the hill."

HICKEY, ED.

Realizing that size is only desirable and not necessary, Hickey was a worthy general on the field despite his lack of avoirdupois. Always cool and deliberative, Eddie would diagnose the defense and take advantage of all opportunities to gain. His 54 yard run against the Flickertails from North Dakota was sensational.

LUEPKE, HENRY

Replacing Bertoglio at fullback and breaking up forward passes were "Hen's" favorite occupations. Luepke's aerial tactics in advancing the ball were outstanding. "Hen" has played his last game for the Bluejays. Good luck, "Hen!"

KEANE. SAS.

Handicapped at the first of the season by injuries, Keane did not have a chance to display his speed and cleverness: nevertheless, what he lacked in the first few games was compensated for in the others. His 70 yard run in the final game of the season was largely responsible for the victory. Keane was a consistent punter in addition to being one of the speediest halfbacks in the game. Keane has one more year to play.

McKENNA. ED.

At tackle big Ed was hard to handle. Many times Mc was the cause of a seeming weak opponents' offense. Standing six feet two and weighing around 200 pounds, Ed was no encouragement to the opposing team. Ed has one more year to go and he should be less encouragement to opponents next year.

MORLEY, AL.

Playing his second year at center, Al was one of the mainstays in the line. His accurate passing and his ability to break up forward passes made him valuable at all times. Al has one more year, but from indications of spring practise he will be shifted from center to guard where he will no doubt, prove to be just as valuable.

DEDINGER, WILLIAM.

Playing a position in which it is hard to get proper consideration, Dedinger played with a fighting spirit and is deserving of much credit for his excellent work at guard.

PRATT, WILLIAM

Pratt, playing his second year at end, was aggressively fast and displayed his ability to stop end runs time after time. His weight and speed enabled him to stop end runs with ease. Pratt has another year of football and will no doubt prove himself an outstanding end.

HERBERTS, WILLIS.

"Mike," playing at center, was always effective. His accurate passing and strong defensive work were outstanding. Mike has another year of participation and judging from his work in spring practise he will be back at his old position next year.

DORWART. HARRY

Playing his first year of varsity, Harry earned the reputation of being a worthy man to fill the place left vacant by Captain Bertoglio. Harry's line plunging was remarkable and his interference on end runs was very effective. We look for the fullback position to be adequately filled by our Friend Dorwart next year.

KRASNE. MARCUS.

Krasne, with his two hundred pounds was the cause of the failure of many off-tackle plays. This was Krasne's second year and with another year to go, he should be a mainstay in the line. He plays tackle.

LACEY, JOHN

"Red's" favorite sport is one in which there is a lot of fight, and he always found it on the field. Playing at tackle, "Red" was effective in breaking up the offense and he enjoyed throwing anyone for a loss. "Red" also has another year and we hope he will not lose any of his fighting spirit.

MCDONNELL, HUGH

"Mc" played a consistent game at guard. His size was a good defense and blocking many times he capitalized on it by blocking plays over center. More power to you "Mc," next year.

MISKOWICZ, JULIUS.

Julie, playing his first year of varsity, performed creditably at left end. His speed enabled him to get down under punts and drop the receiver in his tracks. Many times Julie was on the receiving end of a beautiful pass. With two more years of varsity, Julie should prove to be one of Creighton's best wing men.

O'BRIEN, CECIL.

Not as big as the ordinary tackle but having an abundance of fight and determination, O'Brien earned his position on the varsity the first year out. He is fast and shifty and will be one of the mainstays around which "Chet" will build his forward wall next year.

O'CONNOR, GORDON.

O'Connor was one of the several fast and shifty backfield men on the team. His ability to cut back made him a dangerous man. O'Connor has one more year of participation and we are expecting him to fill the place left vacant by "Fitz" to the satisfaction of all.

O'CONNOR, ORVILLE.

O'Connor was a first year man and performed at tackle like a veteran. His defensive work was outstanding and we expect him to come back stronger next year. O'Connor is aggressive and fast and should command the respect of all opponents, especially on all off-tackle plays.

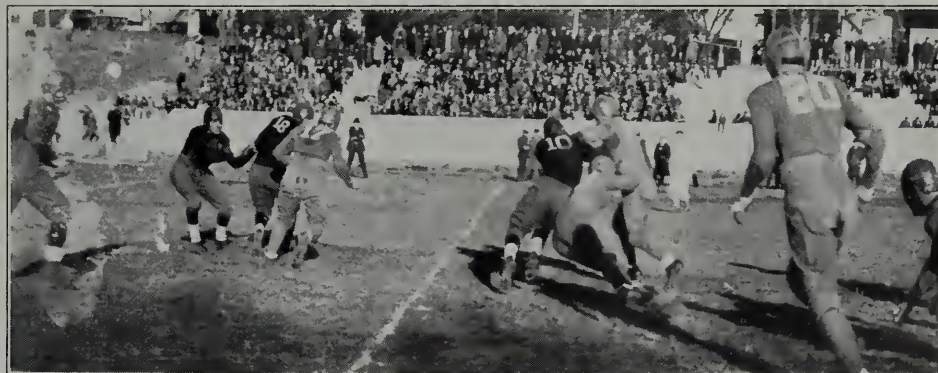

SERVOSS, MERLE.

Servoss was also a first year man playing guard position. Merle was a source of strength in the center of the line and many times set the opponents for a loss. With two more years of varsity, Servoss should be of invaluable service to "Chet" in building up the line.

TRACEY, WILLIAM.

Tracey was our diminutive quarterback, getting his first experience in varsity football. "Bill" was shifty and fast, and his ability to throw passes made him a valuable man. Tracey will fill the place left vacant by Hickey, and we expect him to continue his good work in the next two years of participation.

ATHLETICS

The 1925 Football Season

The football season of 1925 brought Creighton in contact with some of the most representative teams in the country and augmented our prestige in the football world. The most representative games were played with Colorado University, Marquette, John Carroll, and Idaho University.

Out of the four games played in the North Central Conference, three were won by decisive scores and one was a scoreless tie with North Dakota Aggies. The feature of our wins in the conference was the game won from South Dakota State, our old rival. The game was well played and replete with thrills.

This year brought a tie for the North Central championship. Had we scheduled more games in the conference there would have been no question about deciding the championship, but owing to our schedule we were obliged to confine the number of games to four.

This year several of Creighton's most famous gridiron artists passed out of the limelight. We lost the services of Captain Bertoglio, and Fitzgibbon, Powers, Allen, Hickey, Luepke, all of whom have starred consistently for the blue and white. However, the prospects for another successful season are very bright, and from all indications of spring practise, Creighton should have another championship team next fall. Out of the freshman squad, which was very masterfully handled by Coach Neary, there are several who are already making first string men hurry to hold their positions. We are wishing you lots of good luck, Chet, with your team next fall.

ATHLETICS

CREIGHTON 33, MIDLAND 6

The season had an auspicious beginning at the expense of Midland. Coach Wynne's warriors outplayed Midland in every department of the game to win by a decisive score. The contest was played in a rain which continued throughout the game. Despite the mud, Fitzgibbons and Keane managed to run wild, and with the aid of several forward passes, pile up several touchdowns in a few minutes. Graham of Midland starred for his team by returning a punt for a touchdown late in the last period. Quarterback Hickey was injured in the early part of the game and was unable to play for several games.

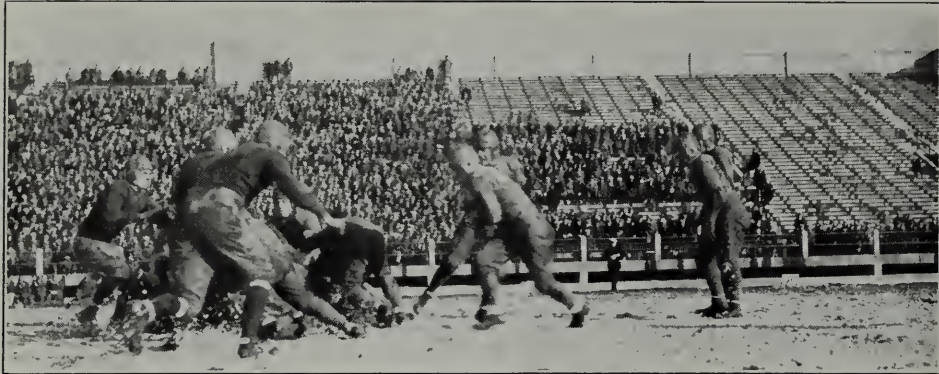

CREIGHTON 0, NORTH DAKOTA AGGIES 0.

One of the best played games of the season was the scoreless tie with the Aggies. From the standpoint of superiority Creighton was easily the winner, making eleven first downs to three for the Aggies. Fitzgibbons threatened to score on a series of end run plays but the Aggies held near their own goal line. Handicapped by the muddy field our fleet backs could not get under way.

Creighton was greatly handicapped by the loss of Keane, who was unable to play because of injury received in the Midland game. Quarterback Hickey was also out of the game, however, Tracey performed very nicely in his place.

Just before the game began, Coach Wynne was presented with a beautiful floral horseshoe by Mr. D. B. Porter of the Porter Thurmond Brick Co. of Omaha.

ATHLETICS

LEGION GAME: CREIGHTON 6, COLORADO UNIVERSITY 14.

Playing before the largest crowd of the season, Creighton and Colorado battled up and down the field.

We have no alibi for losing the game. Colorado lead by their brilliant captain, Chilson, who ran with ease through our defense, played an excellent brand of football and were deserving of the win.

Creighton scored early in the first quarter by Fitz and O'Connor skirting the ends for 10 and 15 yards at a time. A pass from Fitz to Miskowicz for 20 yards placed the ball on the one-foot line where Hickey squeezed over for the first score effectively.

The second quarter was scoreless, but runs by Fitz, Bertoglio and Chilson featured. Colorado's attack took effect early in the second half and soon resulted in two touchdowns. The opponents had a superior aerial attack that was worked effectively.

CREIGHTON 20, MORNINGSID 6

Behind, six to nothing, in the last period, with only thirteen minutes to play and later winning 20-6, gives us an idea of the way Creighton's attack took effect at Morningside. Creighton threatened to score early in the first period but failed when a beautiful pass over the goal line went incomplete. From then on until the last period our attack ceased to function.

With only 13 minutes to play, Fitzgibbons again was called upon to start what was hoped to be a winning rally. With a series of runs each netting 10 to 15 yards. Fitz soon had one touchdown marked up to nullify the opponents' lead. Keane went over for a second touchdown soon afterwards, and Bertoglio scored the third one just before the game ended.

HOBO DAY GAME: CREIGHTON 19, SOUTH DAKOTA STATE, 0.

10,000 frenzied fans assembled at State college, supposedly to see the State repeat what had occurred for several years consecutively but in reality to see Creighton avenge their previous defeats.

Keane started the fireworks with a 12 yard dash early in the second quarter. Bertoglio duplicated and with the assistance of two 30 yard passes going to Lang and Allen respectively, the ball was soon in scoring distance. Then Fitz, anxious to show the natives the reality of locomotion, dashed off tackle for the first touchdown.

From then on the game was Creighton's. Frequent dashes by Fitz, Keane, and Bertoglio resulted in two more touchdowns and the game. State was helpless before the line which performed in excellent shape. The playing of Morley, McKenna, and Powers featured in the defense while Fitz and Keane carried off the offensive honors.

CREIGHTON 0, MARQUETTE 28.

Sad but true was the story told to Creighton fans standing before the gridgraph at the News. Invading Milwaukee with the confidence of a winning team, Creighton was unable to conceive of anything like a victory after 60 minutes of hard football.

Marquette resorted to the aerial game and worked it effectively. The game was played on a wet field and our backfield was completely lost. Keane played his most brilliant game of the year but lacked the assistance of Fitz who was without chains.

Demoling and Dilweg starred for Marquette and Keane for Creighton.

CREIGHTON 36, JOHN CARROL 6.

For the first time in many years Creighton invaded Cleveland, Ohio, for a game with John Carrol. More rain greeted the team as they paddled through the opponents' line for six touchdowns while John Carrol was collecting one.

Running attacks were resorted to entirely because of the downpour of rain that continued throughout the game. Fitzgibbons starred by his deceptive open field running which consisted of several 25- and 40-yard runs for touchdowns.

Sas Keane was at his best and kicked from 60 to 70 yards consistently. It was his kicking that enabled Creighton to play most of the game in John Carrol territory.

In the line, Morley, Servoss, O'Connor and Krasne were outstanding.

CREIGHTON 20, FLICKERTAILS 7.

"Just Running Wild" by Chet Wynne, sung by Paul Fitzgibbons, the lyric tenor, to the accompaniment of the team, tells the story of our victory over North Dakota.

North Dakota was threatening to score early in the first period when Lang fell on a fumble and gave Creighton the ball on their own 15 yard line. Then, one play and the game was decided. The famous Fitz, who had demonstrated his deceptive powers many times, dashed around end, cut back, and covered the remaining 85 yards in 10 flat for the first touchdown of the game.

Eddie Hickey was not to be eclipsed so he returned a punt 60 yards for another touchdown later in the game. Hickey played an excellent game.

By winning this game Creighton went into a tie for first place in the North Central Conference. Our superiority in the Conference was well established by such a decisive defeat. North Dakota was easily outclassed as evidenced from the scrimmage summary which gave Creighton 312 yards to 177 for North Dakota.

ATHLETICS

CREIGHTON 7, HASKELL 10.

Homecoming day found the Haskell Indians, our old rivals, ready to do battle with the Bluejays. The game was played on even terms during the first half, neither team being able to get underway. It was in the third quarter that both teams displayed real knowledge of football. Off tackle plays were good for yards and after a series of brilliant runs by Fitz, Bertoglio, and Keane, Creighton went over for a touchdown, Keane carrying the ball. The Indians recovered, however, and by a series of line plunges with Levi carrying the ball, they pushed over a touchdown to tie the score.

Early in the fourth quarter Fitz got away for 45 yards and a touchdown, but was called back for out of bounds. The decision was loudly protested by the fans. The winning score came late in the last period when Haskell placed a beautiful drop kick neatly between the uprights.

CREIGHTON 34, IDAHO 19.

The final game found Creighton engaged with a team from the far west. Idaho had a strong record and were in Omaha to maintain their superiority. The first part of the game assumed a dangerous appearance when Idaho scored frequently. Their aerial game was cleverly executed which accounted for the score being 19-14 in their favor at the first half.

It was in this game that Keane was at his best. Several long runs, one for 70 yards and a touchdown, completed his contribution to the final score. Keane added several touchdowns and played the best defensive game of his career. Reget, for the Vandals, was the outstanding star. His runs and passes were outstanding and his dropkick for 45 yards early in the game established a record on the local field.

Frank Ryan

The team made a wise selection of Ryan as their captain and by his tireless efforts he proved to be an able leader. Ryan was responsible for many victories and his playing merited for him a position on the all-conference five. In the Nebraska game Ryan proved to be the strong man on the offense but despite his efforts we were unable to win. Frank has played his last game for the Blue and White but his record will long be remembered.

Top Row—Beha, J. Ryan, Fogarty, Diesing, Koudele, Hart, Haley.
Second Row—Pohl, Brown, Coach Schabinger, Manager Belford, F. Ryan, Captain, Conway.

BROWN, AL.

Brown was the unanimous choice as a successor to Ryan. Al performed in great style on the court and was also placed on one of the conference teams. Brown's playing in the Minnesota game convinced the fans that he would fill the vacancy left open by Trautman. Scoring six baskets and several free throws, he easily established his superiority as a basket shooter. Captain elect Brown will be seen in action next year

HALEY, DICK.

Returning to Creighton after being out a year, Haley helped Schabbie solve the guard situation. Dick was regarded as one of the strongest guards in the conference and his superb playing, especially in the Minnesota game, was outstanding. His ability to shoot baskets from mid-court made him a dangerous man at all times. Dick has finished his basketball career at Creighton with three brilliant years of service. Goodbye Dick, and good luck!

DIESING, GORDON.

Playing his first year of varsity, and performing with the ease of a veteran, Diesing was not long in convincing Schabbie that he could easily take care of the center position. It was the Nebraska game at Lincoln that gave Gordon his chance to demonstrate his basketball ability. Shooting three baskets in rapid succession from difficult positions, gave all the Creighton fans the assurance of a win.

KOUDELE, JACK.

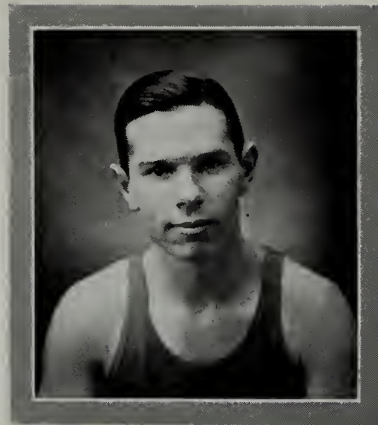

Jack was kept out of action by the brilliant playing of Haley and Beha, but when in the game Jack was dependable on defense and could be relied upon for several baskets. He was fast and deceptive and remarkably clever on breaking up the opposing offense.

BEHA, JOE

Beha was called upon to fill the vacancy caused by the loss of Speicher and he responded in fine shape. Big and rangy with plenty of fight and determination characterizes Joe, who not only guarded with the skill of a veteran but also shot baskets like a forward. Joe has two more years to play and should establish himself as one of the greatest guards ever produced at Creighton.

CONWAY, JIM

Playing a guard position but always dangerous on long shots, Jim Conway proved to be one of the most valuable men on the team. The timely substitution of Conway in the Minnesota game started a rally in which Creighton piled up sufficient lead to put the game away. Jim's favorite was long shots in addition to being very accurate when throwing free throws.

POHL, LOUIS.

Pohl and Diessing divided honors at the center position. Pohl, being tall and consistently accurate when shooting, was a valuable man. His shooting in the Morningside game furnished the scorer with plenty of work. Pohl is expected to perform in good shape next year and with his assistance, Schabbie should have no trouble in solving the center problem.

FOGARTY, HUGH

Hugh did not get into all of the games, but he always could be depended on to come through in a pinch. This was Fogarty's first year of varsity which brought out his possibilities for a brilliant season on the court next year. With two more years of participation, Hugh should prove to be one of Schabbie's most valuable forwards.

Review of the Season

The graduation class of 1925 left the basketball squad minus four veteran men who had been the mainstays of the team for the last three years. These were Mahoney, Captain; Trautman, Spicher, and Cornneman, who played their last for Creighton. With Captain Ryan, Al Brown, Jim Conway, and Jack Koudelle from last year's squad, and Dick Haley, who was a veteran from two years ago, as a nucleus. Coach Schabinger had to build his team from the Frosh squad of last year. Laboring under great handicaps and facing discouragements, Coach Schabinger built a team we can well be proud of. If they had only had the confidence that comes with long association and practice, the team could hold up Creighton's honor with any opponent.

The last season was a season of upsets and disappointments. The teams that Creighton were doped as easy winners, were lost to or beaten by a very small margin, while the games in which Creighton was doped as the "under dog" more often turned out to be victories than what the sages had hoped. While we lost the Conference Championship for the first time since entering the North Central Conference the last season cannot be called an utter failure. While we lost to such teams as Morningside and Des Moines University, we also came out victorious in encounters with the Kansas Aggies, split a two game series with Nebraska and Marquette, easily beat South Dakota U., and split with the North Dakota University in a two game series, as also with Minnesota University.

Perhaps it is because the Creighton teams of the past have been so successful that when the team takes a slump, as all champions do, it seems to us that we all know the solution of the problem and that we should tell the world about it, but as most "cure-alls," they are invariably wrong.

The season opened with a practice game with Midland, which proved to be a landslide in favor of Creighton to the tune of 63 to 6. The next was a two game series with Minnesota University in which we lost the first by the score of 20 to 21, and won the second night by the rout of 27 to 11. Iowa State College was the next victim and were taken in by the score of 18 to 15 in a slow and uninteresting game. The team was over-confident when they met the powerful and speedy Nebraska University team and lost thereby by the score of 15 to 20.

After the Nebraska Game Schabinger took the basketossers on a trip in the north country and were successful in encounters with South Dakota State and Morningside, but lost to Loyola of Chicago and Marquette University. On their return to Omaha they took on the North Dakota University in a two game encounter and won the first by 25 to 21 and dropped the second 20 to 19. The less said about the Des Moines game the better, except to say that Des Moines won, 34 to 24, with Toay of Des Moines making 20 points for his team.

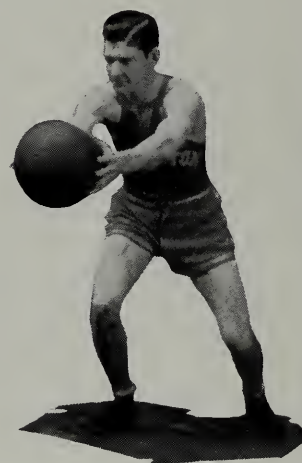

ATHLETICS

After the Des Moines "comedy of errors" the team came to life again and scored with victories against South Dakota U., 34 to 14, and Nebraska University at Lincoln, 15 to 11, and the powerful Kansas Aggies, 27 to 21. It looked as if the team had hit the old stride of past years again when the blow fell, this time it was Morningside who came out on the long end of a 22 to 26 score.

South Dakota State met defeat again at the hands of the Bluejays, this time by the score of 32 to 16. Marquette was the next to be taken down the river and this time it was by the tune of 24 to 16. For the final games of the year the Bluejays journeyed to South Bend to play the almost undefeated Notre Dame team. Notre Dame had one of the best teams in her history of basketball and had only been defeated once and that was by a low score. They were again successful and Creighton got the small end of 17 to 23 and 18 to 29. They were hard fought games and in the first half of each game it seemed that Notre Dame would lose another, but they didn't, and so ended the season for 1926.

TRACK

ATHLETICS

CLEYON A. STEWART
Captain, 1925

ATHLETICS

Captain Stewart was responsible in a great degree for Creighton's successful season. Running the half mile in record time and bringing in the baton in the relay were his major contributions. "Stew" represented Creighton in the open half mile at the indoor meet in Kansas City, placing second. He also represented Creighton in the Illinois Relays and was later honored by representing the Blue and White in Boston during the Olympic tryouts.

STEWART, Captain 1925

Standing—Coach Wynne, Krasne, Nolan, Morrissey, Keane, Palmer, Burbridge, Bendon.
Sitting—Trautman, Byrne, Vance, Lower, Stewart (Capt.)

KEANE. Captain, 1926

Sas was Creighton's dash man and his winnings for the year were numerous. Keane ran the hundred in 10 flat and was winner of the 220 in the conference meet. Under Captain Keane, Creighton should have another representative track team in the field this year.

BENDON

Bendon featured in the half and quarter mile. He also ran on the relay team that won at the Northwest Relays. Bendon will be missed from the squad this year.

The Relay Team

Stewart

Bendon

Morrissey

Trautman

BURBRIDGE.

Burbridge ran the 100, 220 and the quarter mile. He was particularly valuable because of his versatility. Burbridge will be on the squad this year and big things are expected of him.

MORRISSEY

Steve was Creighton's half-miler. He registered first in the half mile event in the meet with South Dakota and placed in many other meets. Steve is eligible this spring and he should be a mainstay on the team.

BYRNE.

Better known as the "Iron Man." Foxy ran the two-mile in fast time and represented Creighton in the cross-country runs. His man-killing race will be without him this year, but we hope someone will emulate his efforts.

NOLAN, CLIFF

Cliff heaved the shot and discus. He placed in many meets but was not fortunate to win a first. Cliff was forced to leave school this year and his departure will cause a loss to the squad. We are wishing him all the success in the world wherever he may participate in track.

KRASNE.

When not on the football team, Krasne was putting the shot and throwing the discus. Krasne could also run the 100 yard dash and considering his avordupois, he was exceptionally fast.

LOWER.

Lower ran the quarter and 220 and was a member of the fast relay team. Heine won first in the quarter mile in the indoor meet and third in the 50 yard dash. His running as first man on the relay team was largely responsible for its success. He will not be on the team this year.

TRAUTMAN.

After basketball season, Johnnie was seen on the cinder path working out for the half mile, and mile. He won first place in the mile at the conference meet, establishing a record. Trautman's ability as a basketball and track man was recognized by the athletic board when they appointed him freshman coach in these two sports.

VANCE.

Charlie Vance was an "iron man". He ran the mile and two mile in good time. Charlie is out this year working hard and we expect him to come through in excellent shape for Coach Wynne.

ATHLETICS

The track season of 1925 was ushered in by the Indoor meet of the North Central Conference, held in Creighton Gym for the second consecutive year. A large crowd was present and many athletes competed for honors. The meet was easily won by Creighton for the second time by a score of 45; the nearest rival was Des Moines, with 18 points. The feature races of the evening were the 50-yard dash, won by Keane, the quarter mile, won by Lower, the half mile, won by Stewart, and the relay, won by Creighton.

For the first time in three years, the indoor meet was not held this year. Various reasons were given, but despite all of the reasons it is hoped that the annual event will be resumed.

Coach Wynne wishes to be represented in the indoor meet at Kansas City, so he entered Captain Stewart in the open half mile and a relay team that ran against the Haskell Indians. Stewart ran second and the Indians were victorious in the relay.

The following month Coach Wynne sent the relay team, composed of Captain Stewart, Lower, Bendon and Trautman, to the Kansas Relays. Lower was entered in the dashes and quarter. The relay team finished fourth. Some of the strongest teams in the country were entered and many world's records fell.

ATHLETICS

The Dakota Relays furnished Creighton the chance to demonstrate her wares for the first time on the outside track. Many places were won and various trophies are in the case as a result. Among the races won by Creighton were: the medley two-mile relay, 100 yard dash and the broad jump. Keane was high point man with three firsts. The relay team composed of Byrne, Bender, Morrissey and Trautman, ran a beautiful race to finish first.

The North Central Conference meet was held at Sioux City, Morningside College field, with every school in the conference strongly represented. The meet was won by South Dakota University with 43 points. Creighton ran a close second with 40 points. Most of the feature races were won by Creighton but we were unable to gain any points in the field events. Keane won the 220 and broad jump; Bendon, the 880; Trautman, the mile. Captain Stewart was not in the meet due to an injured leg. With Stew running his usual race in the half mile and running at anchor in the relay, Creighton would have easily carried away the honors.

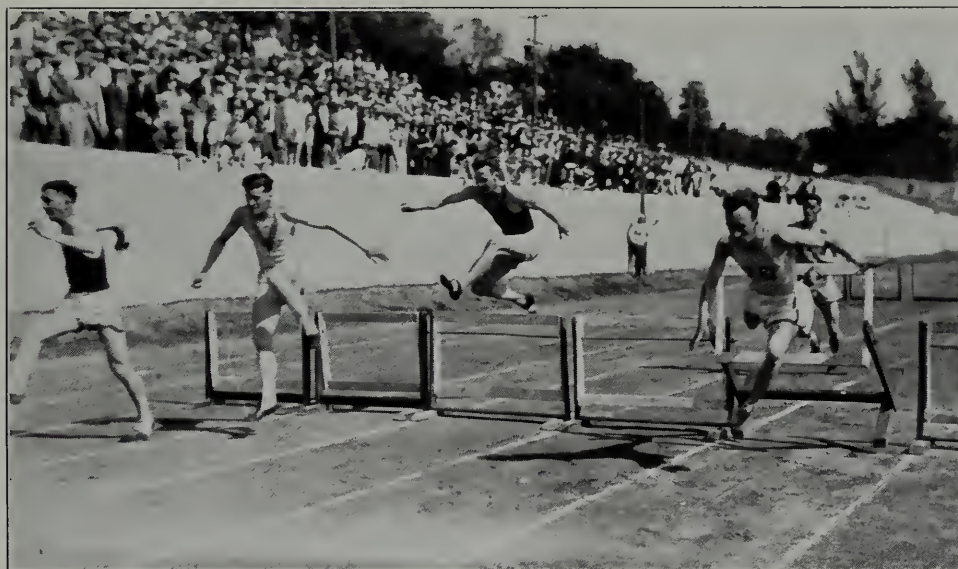

ATHLETICS

On May 9, Creighton entertained South Dakota State here with a dual meet in which Creighton easily won 71 to 46. Creighton was well represented and everyone seemed in excellent condition. Keane won first in the 100 yard dash and broad jump; Krasne, first in the shot put; Trautman, first in the mile; Nolan, first in discus; Vance, first in the two mile, and Morrissey first in the 880 run. This was the first time Creighton had won from South Dakota in several years. The credit goes largely to Coach Wynne, who so carefully put his men into shape.

The season closed when Drake University came to Creighton field to win by a big margin. Drake scored 102 points to 29 by Creighton. Keane starred for Creighton by winning first in the 100 yard dash and the 220 yard dash.

Our season was not so bright, but considering the facilities and the experience we have had in the cinder path, we can say that our showing for the year 1925 was more than was to be expected. Coach Wynne worked faithfully with his men and by his efforts Creighton gained considerable prestige in the field of track.

TRAUTMAN

NEARY

Coach Trautman needs no introduction to Creighton students or alumni. His work on the basketball court and track built for him a reputation that the athletic authorities were quick to capitalize on. His work as freshman coach in basketball and track has been most satisfactory and by collaborating with Coach Neary, he gave Creighton students ample amount of intramural activity. Coach Trautman not only coaches, but finds time to carry a complete course in the medical college.

Coach Neary, whose versatility is well known, assisted Coach Trautman in organizing intramural sports in addition to coaching the freshman football squad. The success of intramural sports was assured by the careful organization of it by Coaches Trautman and Neary. Coach Neary also finds time to carry a complete law course besides engaging in several other extracurricula activities. We congratulate our freshmen coaches and hope they will continue in their success.

Creighton was represented at the North Central Conference tournament by Gabel, McGrath, and Schonlan. In the singles Gabel won his match from Morningside, but lost to North Dakota Aggies, who won the tournament. Schonlan lost to South Dakota University. In the doubles Creighton lost a close match to Des Moines.

MILITARY

With reference to our military policy, President Coolidge has stated: "Our country represents nothing but peaceful intentions towards all the earth, but it ought not to fail to maintain such a military force as comports with dignity and security of a great people." This statement expresses the opinion of the great majority of the thinking men and women of this country. A belief in the correctness and soundness of this principle, "that we should not fail to maintain such a military force as comports with the dignity and security of a great people," is the raison d'être of the Reserve Officers Training Corps.

The Aethenians

The Pan Hellenic Council of Creighton University, composed of the Presidents of all the Greek letter fraternities on the Campus, realized that an organization of men who were generally recognized because of their personality, popularity, leadership and school activity, would be of utmost benefit in stimulating the students to greater effort and therefore sponsored the AETHENIANS.

Only Seniors in the University are eligible for this distinction and the selection is limited to three from each department. Every effort was made to secure fairness in choice. The final judgment board was composed of five prominent Creighton Alumni, and it was descretionary with this board whether or not the limited number be chosen.

Members of the Alumni Board are John Hopkins, City Commissioner and Law graduate of 1913; Dr. Martin P. Kane, Dentistry, 1916; Dan Butler, City Commissioner and Arts graduate of 1899; Dr. Bryant Riley, Physician and Surgeon, class 1900; Henry G. Lee, Prominent Omaha Druggist of the 1914 Pharmacy class.

The Aethenians were presented to the student body at the Pan Hellenic Cotillion which was held at the Fontenelle Hotel ball room May 4, 1926. This has been instituted as an annual affair and promises to be one of the leading social functions at Creighton.

CAVINAUGH

VAN HEE

The year of Nineteen Hundred and Twenty Six marks the leadership of Creighton University in a national organization for Jesuit graduates from colleges of Arts and Sciences.

Through the efforts of David T. Cavinaugh of Claire, Iowa, and Albert V. Van Hee of Kansas City, Missouri, the idea of the new society was conceived and successfully carried out. Immediately after its formation the organization was enthusiastically endorsed by Jesuit colleges in all parts of the country.

Membership of the organization is not confined to the present and future graduates, but has been opened to all Alumni possessing an A. B., B. S., or Ph. B. degree.

A beautiful emblem has been chosen which signifies membership into the organization and pre-supposes an Arts degree. The emblem embodies the seal of Loyola which is inlaid in gold on a background of onyx and surrounded with pearls in the form of a shield.

The Jesuit Arts Graduate Society is founded on the fundamental principles of Jesuitical fraternity. Its purpose is to keep alive that spirit of comradeship between those who have passed from the halls of their Alma Mater. It will be the endeavor of the society to promulgate those principles of Jesuit training that have made it possible for us to better comprehend the relationship of the college man toward God and his fellow men.

French Club

The French Club was organized under the auspices of Professor Klammer to promote active interest in the study of this language. Regular meetings are held at which all are to speak French. This Club in union with the other language clubs hold an annual picnic and give an annual dance.

German Club

The German Club was also organized under the direction of Professor Klammer, to create interest in the study of German. This Club also holds meetings at which entertainment is provided by members of the class. When refreshments are served, all members are present.

Spanish Club

The Spanish Club was organized by Father Thomas, and is now under the direction of Professor Solis, who is head of the Spanish Class. Meetings are held every two weeks. Some students take a more active interest in Spanish because it is a commercial language, and perhaps they are looking forward to setting up in business in South America.

Czech Club

This club was organized both for members who take the course and for those interested in the language. In the University Library are several volumes written in this language. Those interested in Czech literature may refer to them to assist them in their studies. The Czech Club is under the direction of Mr. Cacek.

The Bluejay Quartette

The Bluejay Quartette is a Creighton organization that is rapidly gaining fame throughout the entire state. It is composed entirely of Creighton Students. The Quartette has sang before many of the clubs and organizations of the city. They were featured in the Glee Club recitals and have appeared before the students on University night and various other student gatherings.

That the Quartette is a decided success can be seen by the splendid reports from the critics of the fine arts. We wish them the best of success in the next years of their college life.

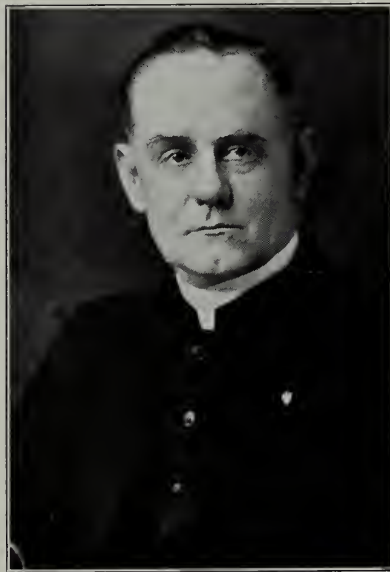

The Sodality

The Sodality was organized for Catholic students by Father Schuetz and Father Egan. Masses are held in the chapel every Sunday at 8:15 and 9:15. One of the purposes of the Sodality is to keep a Vigil during the month of May in honor of the Blessed Virgin Mary. This has been a very successful work and the sponsors of it hope it will be carried out as faithfully this year.

The Retreat

The Annual Retreat of 1926 was given by Father William Robison, S. J., of St. Louis. Father Robison is probably the best known orator of the Jesuit Order. His chief duty is that of giving Retreats. The attendance this year was much greater than in previous years. The percentage of attendance from all schools increased this year. The number of students making the retreat this year was 900. Father Robison's lectures were highly instructive and well received. We earnestly hope the students receive lasting spiritual benefits from this retreat.

Features

On the following pages we present to you a few of the students of Creighton who are the most prominent in the Student Activities, Leaders of their Class and College; and who are making a name for themselves and their University. They were picked at random and the order of their appearance is not an inference of their prominence.
